A little history of Uriah Humphries: Uriah was a soldier in Captain Posey's Company of Regular Virginia Militia and was properly discharged in 1780 at Botetourt County, Virginia. Uriah served in the French and Indian War of 1758 for which he asked bounty land in 1780. Uriah furnished horses for Colonel William Christina's Cherokee Indian expedition in 1776 and 1783. He also served in Captain Joseph Pryer's Militia Company along with John Humphries.
